

THE ROLE OF THE ANTI-BULLYING LEAD GOVERNOR

Tuesday 14th March 2017

10.00am—1.00pm

Preventing and tackling bullying is an issue for all schools and falls within their duties to safeguard and promote the welfare and well-being of children. Personal Development and Welfare is one of the key areas that Ofsted Inspectors consider when making a judgement and this includes a specific focus in relation to bullying.

The governing body has an active role in supporting the school both in the prevention of and response to bullying.

This training has been developed in response to anti-bullying lead governors requesting specialist input and support to effectively undertake this role.

Course objectives:

- To explore current legislation, government guidance and Ofsted criteria.
- To understand the role of the anti-bullying lead governor
- To examine effective anti-bullying practice

Cost: £55 (+VAT)

Venue: School Development Support Agency (SDSA) Training Room, 1st Floor, Alliance House, 6 Bishop Street, Leicester LE1 6AF

To book a place , please visit

anti-bullyingleadgovernor.eventbrite.co.uk

For any queries about the course, please contact Rebecca Partington via rebecca.partington@sdsa.net or 0116 299 5942

